CPSU HSR course is a WorkSafe Victoria Approved Training Course.

All elected health and safety representatives (HSRs) are entitled to undertake WorkSafe Victoria approved occupational health and safety (OHS) training under Section 67 of the OHS Act 2004. When a HSR is first elected, it's recommended that they undertake an initial training course as soon as possible. Deputy HSRs are also entitled to this training.

Section 67 also allows HSRs to choose the approved training course they attend in consultation with their employer.

The course provides HSRs and Deputy HSRs with information and skills required to successfully carry out their roles and powers under the OHS Act. CPSU training is tailored to the working places within the Victorian Public Sector, ensuring that case studies are relevant to HSRs attending.

Our sessions run across five days over a three week period. CPSU is able to deliver group training upon request. Contact our OHS Officers on 96391822 for further information.

Learning Objectives as determined by WorkSafe Victoria:

- Interpreting the OHS legislative framework and its relationship to the HSR;
- Identifying key parties and their legislative obligations and duties;
- Establishing representation in the workplace;
- Participating in consultation and issue resolution;
- Representing designated work group members in any OHS risk management process undertaken by the appropriate duty holder(s)
- Issuing Provisional Improvement Notice (PIN) and directing cessation of work.

Cost: The cost of the course is $870 for CPSU members and $970 for non-members (GST Inc.) All costs associated with attendance at the course are borne by your employer, but at least 14 days' notice must be given to your employer. This will facilitate your paid leave to attend.
